

3rd Annual Addiction Medicine Symposium

October 21st, 2020

8:30am-9:00am Welcoming Remarks: Dr. Joshua Blum, MD, Denver Health; José Esquibel, Colorado Consortium for Prescription Drug Abuse Prevention
9:00am-10:00am Keynote: Dr. Nita Mosby-Tyler, The Equity Project
10:00am-10:05am Break
10:05am-11:30am Historic Inequities and Substance Use Disorders (Panel): Deidre Johnson, MBA, The Center for African American Health; James Corbett, M. Div., JD, Initium Health, Lesley Brooks, MD, SummitStone Health Partners; Cuica Montoya, Colorado Village Collaborative (Moderator: Nita Mosby-Tyler)
11:30am-12:00pm Self Care for the Frontline Behavioral Health Worker in the Time of COVID-19 (Martha Teater, LMFT, Teater Health Solutions)
12:00pm-1:00pm LUNCH BREAK
1:00pm-1:30pm Response to COVID-19 at Denver Health's Outpatient Substance Treatment Services: Maximizing Client Benefit, Minimizing Client Harm : Dr. Hermione Hurley, MD, Denver Health
1:30pm-2:00pm Tobacco Products, Health Equity, and the COVID-19 Pandemic: Dr. Jonathan Samet, University of Colorado School of Public Health
2:00pm-3:00pm Reproductive Health in the War on Drugs: Ignorance and Inequities, Dr. Mishka Terplan, MD, MPH, Friends Research Institute
3:00-3:05 Break
3:05-4:05 Meth and Fentanyl: Twin Epidemics, Dr. Daniel Ciccarone, MD, MPH, University of San Francisco School of Medicine
4:05-4:15 Closing Remarks: Dr. Lesley Brooks, MD